SHORT COURSE

WHITE CARD REFRESHER

CPCCWHS1001 Prepare to work safely in the construction industry

Already hold a White Card, but need a refresher? Achieved your White Card interstate or online and require an SA card for your employer?

COURSE OVERVIEW

White Card is a term used to describe the plastic card issued by a Registered Training Organisations indicating that a person has undertaken general induction training for construction work.

This is a course of training that refreshes basic knowledge of construction work, the Work Health and Safety (WHS) laws that apply, common hazards likely to be encountered in construction work and how the associated risks can be controlled.

Under WHS legislation, workers on construction sites in Australia must undertake general induction training or 'White Card training' and have evidence of their attendance from the course before they are permitted to commence work on a construction site.

COURSE OUTCOMES

On completion of the course you will be able to:

- Identify WHS legislative requirements
- Identify construction hazards and control measures
- Identify WHS communication and reporting processes
- Identify WHS incident response procedures

If successful you will receive a Statement of Attainment and plastic SA White Card with your photograph with a new issue date.

COURSE DURATION

This course is a half day (minimum 3 hours).
